CALL FOR PAPERS

The Croatian Yearbook of European Law and Policy is an open-access, peer-reviewed journal specialized in EU law and policy. It seeks to advance academic scholarship, postgraduate education, to develop European and regional academic networking, to create professional opportunities for law academics, and to promote academic reflection on European law and European values. The specific angle of the Yearbook aims to be critical, realistic and multidisciplinary. The editors recognise that significant answers to legal questions can be found only in a wider political, economic and social context.

The editors welcome contributions on a wide range of European topics. CYELP publishes articles, notes, reports, comments and book reviews. All manuscripts should be submitted online at www.cyelp.com (through the 'Open Journal Systems' software). Authors should follow the submission instructions provided on the specified website. These instructions relate particularly to prior publication of the submission, layout, citation system, and methods of ensuring the anonymity of the review process.

The final deadline for the submission of manuscripts for Volume 16 (2020) is June 1, 2020.

For more information visit www.cyelp.com.
